Bio/Mission

We (the "3rd & jam") believe every song listening experience (that a band creates) should take you on an impressive and memorable journey of timeless felt auditory pleasure from beginning to end.

The way we achieve this is through the time tested craftsmanship of live band musicianship creativity and recording coming together to form music you'll want to hear and relive over and over again.

Of course, through this process great original songs from the “3rd & jam” are born.

So, are you ready to experience exceptional music that will embody you to close your eyes and journey to that place where “every musical measure is a source of auditory pleasure”?

Then come and and ride with us to a place we call, the “3rd & jam”
